1959

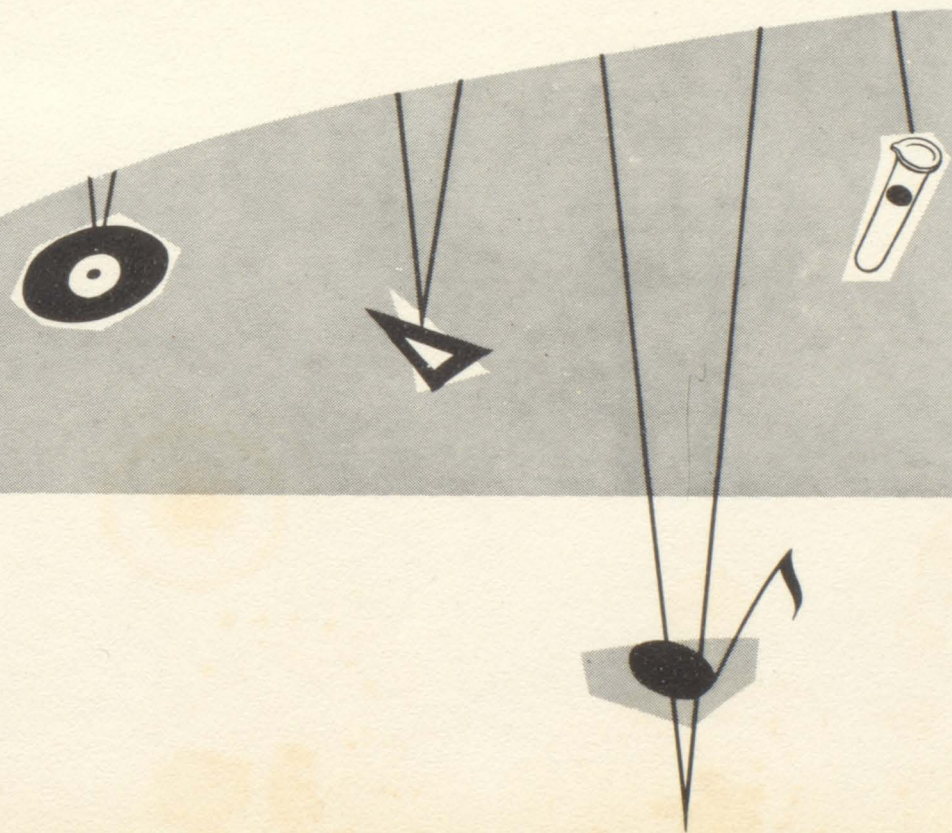

WRIGHT CITY HIGH SCHOOL

Wright City, Missouri

ECHO

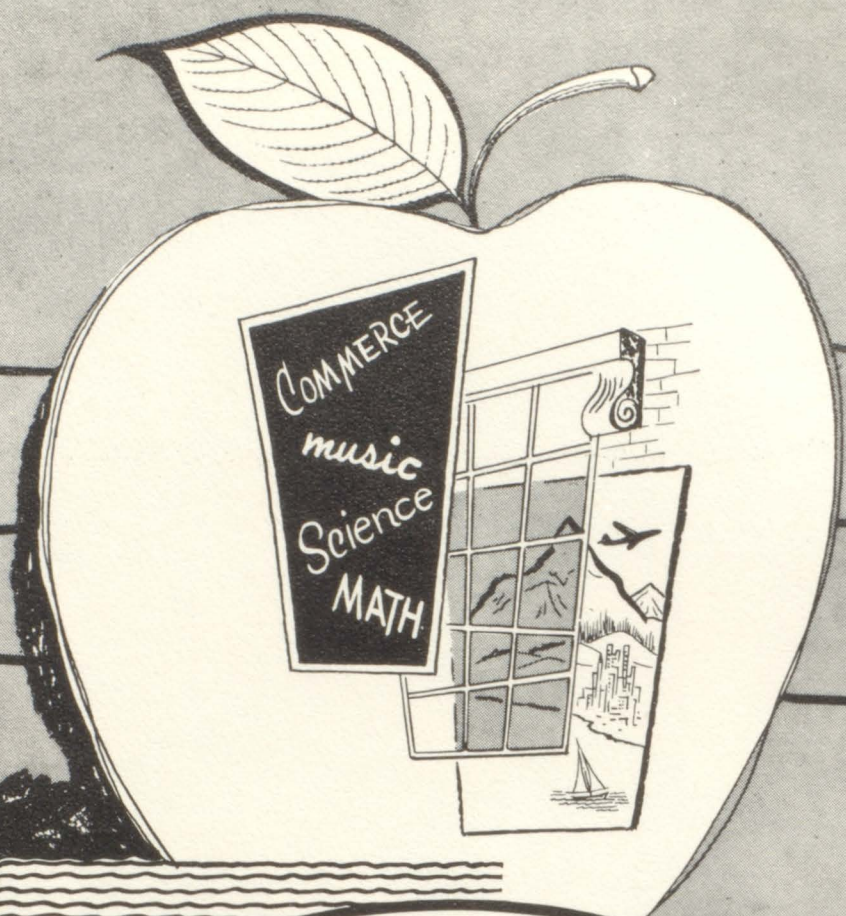

A decorative illustration of a vine with leaves and a central banner. The vine is a dark, twisted stem that runs vertically through the center. It has several smaller, leafy branches extending outwards. The leaves are simple, pointed shapes with some internal vein detail. At the bottom of the vine, there are two large, detailed leaves with fine, parallel lines representing veins. The background is a light gray with a pattern of horizontal lines and vertical tick marks, resembling a brick wall or a stylized grid. A white rectangular banner is positioned horizontally across the middle of the vine. To the left of the banner, there is a small, dark, starburst-like shape. The word "DEDICATION" is written in a bold, black, sans-serif font on the banner.

We, the members of the yearbook staff of 1959, dedicate this year's Echo to Mr. Don DuPerrett in recognition of the many hours he has spent in developing the various sections of the music department and helping in extra-curricular activities.

Senior Class Will

We, the Seniors of 1959, being in our usual state of mind, and feeling the time of our departure from your midst to be drawing nigh, feel that the time has come to draw up our last will and testament.

Individually we do will and bequeath the following:

- I, Mike Byrd, will my ability to get along with the opposite sex to Ronnie Kidwell.
- I, Dale Haller, will my ability to drive without a license for two years and not being arrested for it to Larry Kirk.
- I, Ed Hollenbeck, being of sound mind, do hereby will all my old worn out tires and empty oil cans to Spencer Dwiggins. May he use them for a worthy cause.
- I, Jack Lee, leave my knowledge of what to buy in the used car line to all the boys of W.C.H.S. If it is used as I used it, there will either be no boys or no cars at school in a short time.
- I, Kenny Marten, leave my thrifty ways to Edward Stuermann and Ted Nadler--- there should be enough for both of them.
- I, Bill Moffat, being the best looking, most talented, neatest, and most obedient member of the senior class feel that Craig Pailer is the one most likely to follow in my footsteps. To him I leave these qualities.
- I, Rose Mozee, hereby will my typing skill to Weldon Ball, although he doesn't need it. I, also, will my Home Economics skill to Brenda Luckett and my gym shorts to Ida Woolfolk. Last, but not least, I will my feminine ways with boys to Melba Owens. May she profit by it, as I have.
- I, Ronnie Nieburg, leave to-----well,-----on second thought, I believe I'll just leave.
- I, Arlene Paul, leave my part interest in "Louie" to my sister, Opal,---we must keep him in the family.
- I, Ray Phegley, will all of my girl catching techniques to Victor Brockfeld who has not, as yet, caught any girls. May he get more than I did.
- I, Fuzzy Shortal,--the late Fuzzy Shortal--leave my belt loops to Jerry Taylor. I have used them very little and trust he will treat them gently. I, also, will my beautiful, clean gym shorts and my '54 Mercury to Edward Stuerman and my grandma's German Bible to Miss Myers.
- I, Bill Stegmann, being of questionably sound mind, do hereby will my ditch jumping car to anyone who thinks they can handle it.
- I, Ann Strathman, leave my alarm clock (set so that I can make a late and spectacular appearance at school) to the Poole sisters---in the belief that their appearance may be later and more spectacular than mine.
- I, Sandy Tate, will my official position as General Office Flunkey and all around handy man to Jim Vogt. With his ability in typing, the first part should be easy and as he's usually "All Around" the last should be right up his alley.
- I, Barbara Tomek, leave to my little sister, Betty, all the Thursday, the 12th's, and Friday, the 13th's. She has lived through one this year and should know what not to do or, at least, what not to get caught doing.
- I, Elmer Vahle, do will and bequeath to Gerald Schindler my place as state farmer candidate--it's a good way to get out of other classes.
- I, Dean Wyatt, being of unsound mind or character, as of now not being intoxicated, will anything I have that anyone wants to whoever has less of it than I have.

Senior Prophecy

The year is 1970 and the place is alumni banquet of the W. C. H. S. graduates--The distinguished looking M. C. arose and in an eloquent manner suggestive of Stephen Douglas or William Jennings Bryan, opened the program part of the festivities. It was quite a surprise when we realized it was our old classmate, MIKE BYRD, now superintendent of W. C. H. S. You remember he was quite a buddy of Mr. Small's when he was in school. Mike was especially flowery in the introductions of the members of his class of 1959-- all of whom were present except one.

The first one to be introduced was DENIS SHORTAL--"Fuzzy." He was the first to arrive--quite a switch from the old days. Fuzzy is now a tester for an alarm clock company and takes his work very seriously.

Next came ROSE MOZEE. Rose is now head of the Department of Home Economics at Lincoln University in Jefferson City. She was married to George Johnson who was acting as representative from this district.

DALE HALLER was next in line. Dale had a really unusual type business--he operated a used used car lot-- and did a thriving business--even had to use his old trigonometry book to figure his Outgo Tax.

This Outgo Tax was a new one to be imposed on the people. It was the brainchild of BARBARA TOMEK, who had inaugurated it after she had her own car and had to pay for any and all flats, etc. She spent her first few months out of high school with Elaine, Ann, and Bill completing their eighth hours. They had compiled a record number of them. In fact, the record still holds.

ELAINE WELGE had married Murrill and they lived six months in Springfield, Mo. and six months in Nashville, Tenn. and every night could be found in front seats at either Ozark Opry or Grand Old Opera.

BILL MOFFATT was still a bachelor--you remember he always did have trouble with his g. f.'s. However the shoe was on the other foot now--when they began to show serious intentions he went on to greener pastures. Bill was driving a long, low convertible and had a couple of foreign jobs at home--a pent house apartment in New York where he had an ultra-swank haberdashery and was his own best ad--quite different from the beltless, sagging pants, of early days.

ANN STRATHMAN was head Mistress at an exclusive girls' finishing school and was well qualified for this job having personal knowledge of the problems confronting teen age girls and her punishments were so severe that no one dared be a second offender.

EDDIE HOLLENBECK was next on the list of alumni who were present. He is still courting Mary Sue--trying to get on the good side of her parents--you know Eddie is a little on the slow side about settling down but we think that by the time of our 1980 meeting he should have popped the question.

DEAN WYATT looked quite dignified in his uniform of Rear Admiral in the U. S. Navy--(I hope I have the title right and the "Admiral" is a part of his title.)

ARLENE PAUL is a high fashion model in New York--has been a Powers girl for several years and lives in an apartment overlooking Central Park. She and Bill see each other quite often.

ELMER VAHLE turned out just as we all expected. He became one of the outstanding farmers of the state and is in line to become Secretary of Agriculture whenever his political party gets in office again.

RAYMOND PHEGLEY has quite a reputation in certain circles--and also has a thriving business as a guide through Tuque where he goes by the title of Coon Hunter DeLuxe.

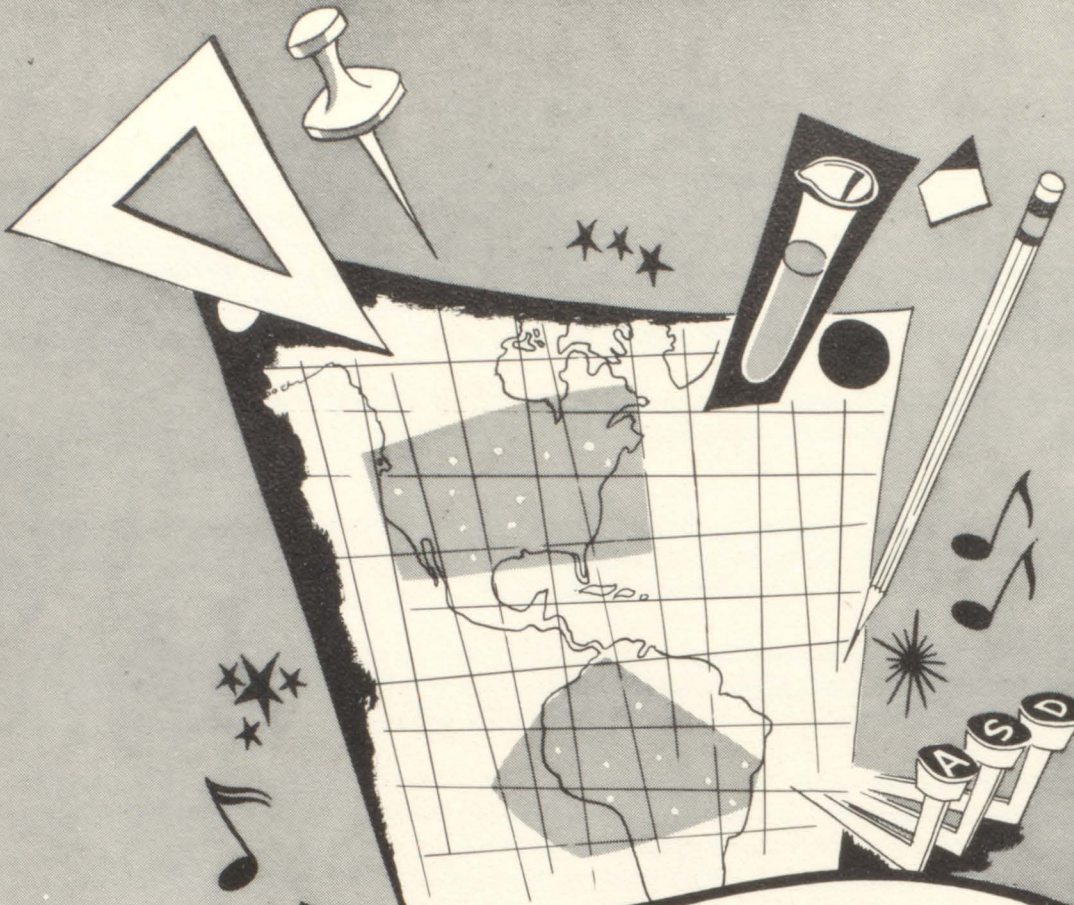

BILL STEGMANN had become a star performer in the Metropolitan Opera where he sings the part of the Duke in "Rigoletto" where he sits in the tavern singing of all his lady friends. The same old Bill of Senior days.

KENNY MARTEN was his manager, accompanist, valet, chauffeur, and the keeper of both their "little black books" -- and the names and telephone numbers they had collected looked like "Who's who among the Varga Girls."

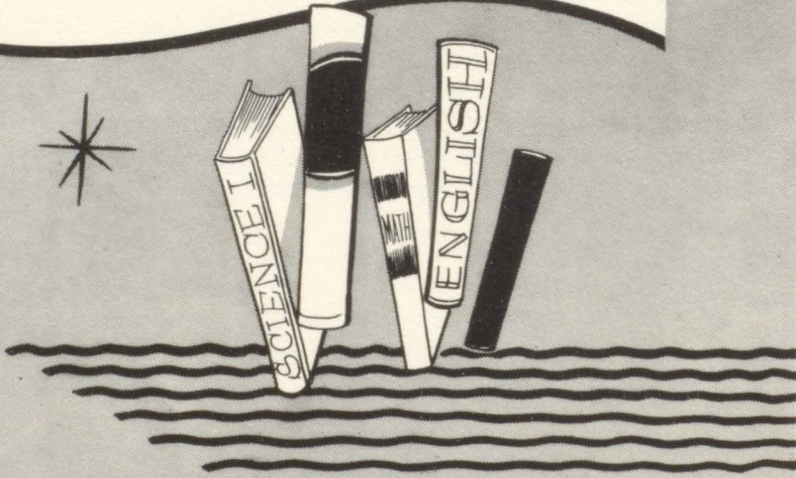

SANDY TATE was certainly a great surprise. She is still Sandy Tate. She decided that married life would be too much of a sameness. She has a taxi service that keeps her quite busy--she said she remembered that during high school days someone was always looking for transportation someplace---so she had a taxi stand west of the school and was doing very well.

RONNIE NIEBURG had really gone to town in a big way. He had inherited the Mortuary business from his father and had studied both medicine and law and was an ambulance chaser who could take care of any emergency. He spent his spare time counting his money and was known generally as "Scrooge" Nieburg.

The only one not present was JACK LEE. He was the first man to volunteer from the Air Force for a trip to the moon--something happened and the missile didn't return to earth--so Jack is still out there orbiting around the moon. Instead of lovesick teenagers looking at the man in the moon they sigh softly and say "There goes Jack in the Moon's moon."
