Plug in the headphones and press play. As the first track plays, so does the start of the 2006-2007 school year: loud, energetic, soft, chaotic, rhythmic, out of key, & in style. As the music changes, so do we. It calms us in times of loss and cheers us on at competitions. As the last track comes to an end, we leave Wright City High School--some for a summer and some forever. A new album of our lives may start, but we can always press replay, and we're here again.

(Top) The Wildcats had the best start in WCHS history. The homecoming game was the fourth shutout of the season.

(Middle) The homecoming dance was a blast for junior Andrew Budd and sophomore Lisa Manda who shook their "money makers" all night. Some of the songs played at the dance were "Lips of An Angel" by Hinder, "Money Maker" by Ludacris, and "Sexy Back" by Justin Timberlake. (Bottom) Sophomore quarterback, Adam Springmeyer, hit Rod Rohr for a 19-yard touchdown mid-way through the second quarter.

COURT WARMING

Posing as her favorite actress, Audrey Hepburn, Senior Michelle Marchand dresses up on Character Day.

The sophomore class cheers on their tug of war team during the spirit games.

IN THE BEGINING, THERE WAS NO SCHOOL. ON THE FIRST FULL DAY, THERE WAS COLOR. THE YOUNGEST WORE WHITE, THE ELDEST, SILVER. THE ELDEST MIDDLES COVERED THEMSELVES IN RED AND THEIR YOUNGER COUNTERPARTS DIPPED THEMSELVES IN BLACK. THE SECOND DAY WAS THE DAY OF OLD AGE. CHARACTERS WERE IN ABUNDANCE ON THE THIRD DAY.

Zach Kaibel quickly wraps his fellow freshmen in an attempt to win the paper towel race during the spirit games.

The Spirit Trophy once again in the hands of the seniors!

Seniors Ray Grelle, Anthony Ball, and Ricky Kelly battle it out as silver knights during lunch.

Sophomore Kayla Beeny travels to the far east as Sakura from Card Captors.

ON THE LAST AND FINAL DAY, RIVALS COMPETED ON THE BATTLEFIELD OF THE GYM FLOOR, CLAD IN BLUE AND GOLD.

THE SENIORS EMERGED VICTORIOUS FROM THE BATTLEFIELD, LOSING SOME BATTLES BUT WINNING THE WAR. THEY GLEEFULLY PARADED DOWN THE HALLWAY SHOWING OFF THEIR SPOILS,

THE SPIRIT TROPHY.

Denied of her afternoon nap, "old" senior Heather Gipson gets sleepy.

Song by Shirley Bassey

"FOR WHAT GOOD WILL LOVE DO ME? DIAMONDS NEVER LIE TO ME."

Jared Sitze and Shakar Butler defend Wildcat territory as JV claimed a Courtswarming victory.

Emily Burross, Tiffany Dvello, Jessica Moffat, & Amanda Christisen dance the night away.

Senior Matt Rook passes to senior Rod Rohr. The game was a close battle ending in a 44-60 loss.

Sophomores Kyle Wendt and Sean Dunakey take time out to relax and have a laugh.

Junior Ivan Malpica dances to new heights with dare-devil flips. Ivan currently reigns champ of the school dance-off.

The varsity boys get pumped before each game.

"How low can you go? All the way to the floor?" Wright City proves they know how to Cha-Cha.

Senior Kaci Hale and junior Jennifer White are HILARIOUS dancers, really.

"Football is one of them sports where you can't think about it, you just got to play. Getting hit doesn't feel too good, but hitting someone is worth the pain." -Alno Boscaglia

Thomas Chung is a student from Hong Kong. "I love to play basketball! I really enjoyed my visit to Wright City, everybody is so nice!"

Mariana Candido came all the way from Brazil to stay in Wright City. "I like to hang out with friends and just goof around. I love it here, but I do feel home sick sometimes."

Alno Boscaglia is also a student from Brazil. "Baseball and soccer are my favorite sports to play. I just love being outside."

Jeanette, Mariana, and Thomas all graduated this year from Wright City High School.

Jeanette Sande is from Norway. "I really enjoy shopping and going to different malls. I love to dance, and being a part of the dance team gave me a lot of confidence."

Hot jeans are forever cool on men and women, while skinny jeans and jean skirts made a comeback.

Sneakers? They're for gym. Potato shoes & flats rule the hallways.

Not just for music: iPods now come in many colors & covers, making them a fashion expression.

Jean skirts and capri's are always a good choice.

In Memory

Jordan Patrick Held was a brother, a son, a student, a friend, a seventeen year old boy with a future, and a kid who was supposed to live forever. On September 17, 2006 at around four in the morning, forever got cut tragically short.

Jordan had more friends than imagined; they were left with questions that had no answers. How did it happen? Could it have been prevented? What had he been doing? And the question that has been on everyone's mind: why?

He left his friends house for some destination; no one really knows where, but crashed heading back on Hwy W, very near to North Stringtown. Jordan wrecked his green Cavalier, smashing into a tree after going off the road and nearly missing a telephone pole. Not only had he be drinking, but he had also not worn his seatbelt. What made Jordan swerve off the road is a mystery. Some think a deer ran in front of him, others attribute the accident to him drinking or falling asleep at the wheel. Most however are simply in shock.

Two skateboards in the shape of a cross were nailed to the tree where he wrecked. Flowers, letters, pictures, and other various mementos were left at the tree. Close friends of Jordan made T-shirts, hoodies, and flyers. Posters were hanging around the school on the Monday after the accident announcing his death. Some found out Sunday night, but most found out by flyers on Monday morning.

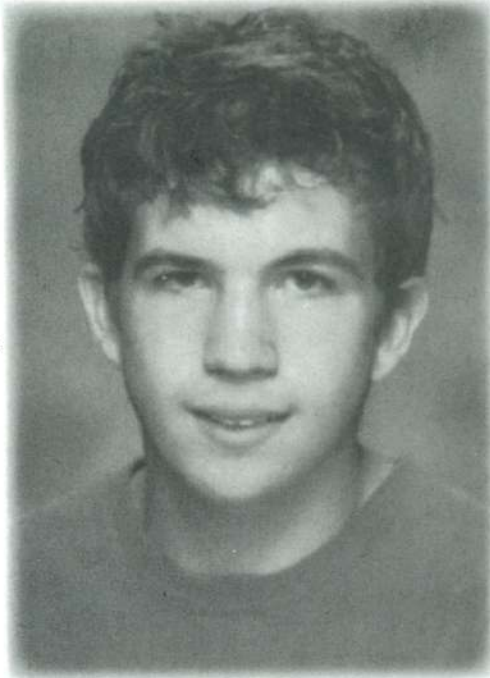

The entire week tears were shed for him. Students were in and out of the counselor's office, seeking moral support. Jordan's wake and funeral were held on Friday, September 22nd. The wake started at 4pm and lasted until 7:30 when the service began. So many of the grieving students, family, and friends carpooled up to the Baue Funeral Home that the home had to open up the back room

In Loving Memory of Jordan

FOR SEATING; STILL A FEW WERE LEFT STANDING. FOR THE SERVICE JORDAN'S BODY WAS CREMATED AND HIS URN SAT IN THE FRONT OF THE ROOM SURROUNDED BY PICTURES AND FLOWERS.

"He was the best boyfriend ever. He will be remembered and loved." Says Lindsey Voldanski, who had been dated Jordan on and off since his move to Wright City and had just started going back out again. One of Jordan's close friends Justin Gifford said, "It still hasn't hit me that he's gone." Those words couldn't be true. Many people spoke about Jordan and were saddened that they wouldn't see his trademark smiling face again.

Jordan is survived by his mother Donna Kinkaid, his stepfather Bill, his younger brother Grant, his father from California, and many others. Friends of Jordan collected donations for three days, earning over 400 dollars to give to his family at the funeral, along with a skateboard signed by many students and friends of Jordan. Wentzville Wal-Mart collected donations for Jordan's family to help pay for the funeral services and other expenses.

AS WELL. JORDAN HELD ALWAYS BROUGHT PEOPLE TOGETHER IN LIFE AND NOW IN DEATH. HE WILL BE MISSED, BUT THE IMPORTANT THING TO REMEMBER IS THAT HE IS

ALWAYS IN OUR HEARTS. "REMEMBER THE GOOD TIMES," SAID WHITNEY COX "I'VE KNOWN JORDAN SINCE 8TH GRADE; HE WAS THE KIND OF GUY THAT WAS EITHER YOUR BEST FRIEND OR YOUR BEST FRIEND. THERE WAS NO IN BETWEEN."

Smack that till you get sore

Each year the Wright City volleyball team seems to amaze us. With an 11-12-3 varsity record, they worked hard on functioning together as a team and improving on their basic skills. The wildcats took victory over Montgomery County in the first district game leaving them to play Herrmann. The journey stopped there for the wildcats as Herrmann took first in districts and in state. Some outstanding wildcats included Krista Bort who was awarded with 1st team all conference and 1st team all district. Jessica Moffat was awarded with 2nd team all conference and 2nd team all district, and last but not least, Sara Yoder was awarded with 2nd team all district. The JV team ended at a 9-11-2 record & the Freshmen team ended up with a 6-4-1 record.

Highlights of the Season

- Won the homecoming game
- Won three out of the five conference games
- Had four shutouts on defense
- Earned second place in Districts
- This year the boys had the most wins in program history 6-4

The "Wildcat of the Year" trophy was awarded to the entire senior class of 2007. "They can pass it around like the Stanley Cup," explains Coach Weir.

This year the boys pulled together through the injury of quite a few star players. Many younger players had to take on roles they may have not been ready for but stepped up to the plate none the less.

Your Out!

Varsity catcher John Telkamp catches a ball in the dirt as the opposing team's player strikes out.

The Wright City Wildcat baseball team had their ups and downs during the 2006-2007 season. Varsity ended the year with a 7-12 record. With only 3 returning varsity starters, the Wildcats did an excellent job showing their potential throughout the season. A few outstanding Wildcats include Eric Burton who was awarded with the silver slugger award and was mentioned second team All Conference. Andrew Budd was also awarded the silver slugger award and was honorable mentioned. Ivan Malpica also received honorable mention. Last, but not least, senior Rod Rohr was awarded the most improved award. The JV team ended up with a record of 5-5. Dalton Koch was awarded JV player of the year.

The 2007 Yearbook crew wasted no time. Within the first two weeks of school, the staff had agreed on theme, fonts, and folios. While quickly adjusting to a whole new program, the yearbook crew went to a Walsworth workshop at Westminster College. While there, students split up into specified sessions such as: Caption Writing, Form, Photography, and Theme. At the workshop, Wright City's Yearbook theme was met with great reviews.

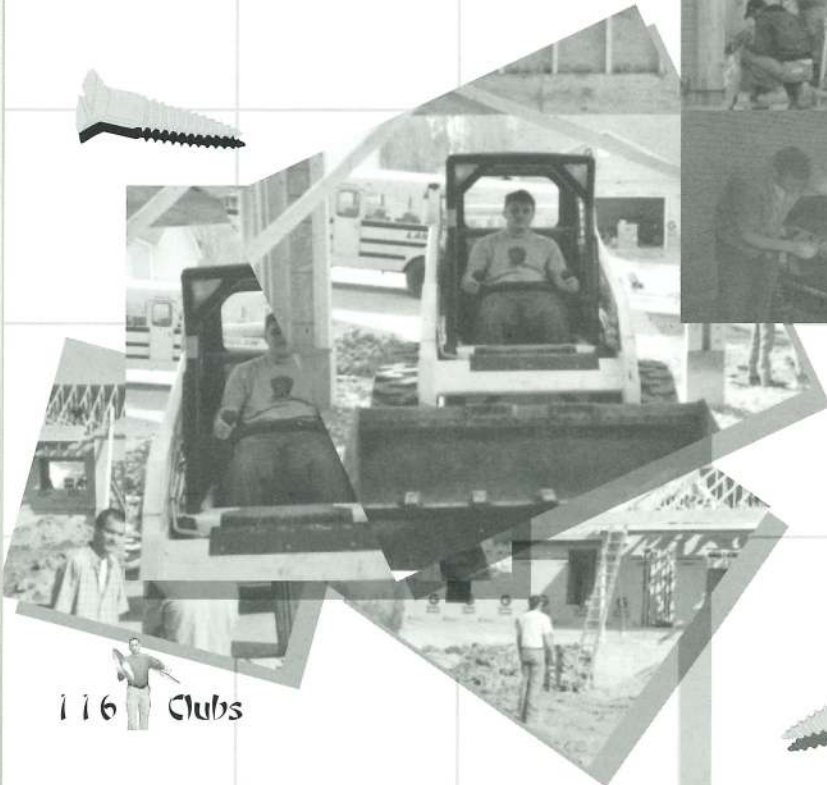

Yearbook Class is taught by Ms. Love. Whitney Cox is editor in chief, Kristin Kifer is ads editor, and Nathan Sutter is folios editor. First semester, Alana Sherman, Jennifer White, Kylee Brassel, and Megan Lockhart were in yearbook. Second semester brought in new staffers: Samie Shelton, Lyndsey Woldanski, and Leah Jones.

Vocational Technology is a program that has everything. Technically speaking, there are four divisions of Vo-Tech. In Welding, students learn the different types of welding. In Collision, they learn how to work on cars, paint cars, and reconstruct car frames and bodies. In Computer class, students put computers together from scratch, learn to get rid of viruses, and learn how to detect hardware problems. The fourth class is Building where students learn how to construct a house, internal building: including plumbing and electrical, and outside construction: including brickwork and siding.

Senior Tim Walker went to state competition in the Auto Collision Repair division and recieved 13th out of 29 contestants. The Vo-Tech members include Zac Burch, Arthur Lewis, Dustan Shipley, Tim Walker, Sean Berube, Nick Adkins, Josh Pitts, Dillon Lang, Drew Daniels, David Edley, Chris Feldscher, & Josh Jennings.

"Another turning point
 A fork stuck in the road
 Time grabs you by the wrist directs you where to go.
 So make the best of this test
 and don't ask why.
 It's not a question
 But a lesson learned in time.

So take the photographs and still frames in your mind.
 Hang them on a shelf
 In good health and good times
 Tattoos and memories and dead skin on trial.
 For what it's worth,
 it was worth all the while.
 It's something unpredictable
 but in the end it's right.

 your life."*
